Convenient Use

1. Peel off the pouch and collection;
2. Put the swab into the medium;
3. Snap the stick of swab;
4. Screw the tube cap tightly;
5. Label the specimen information;
6. Put into the Biohazard bag.

T0039 – Nasopharyngeal Swab

Type: Disposable

Sterility: Irradiation Sterilization

Options: Nasal Swab/ Oral Swab

Certification: CE, FDA

Packaging: 4 Pcs/Box, 2,000 Pcs/Case

HT4001 - Saliva Collection Kit

Composed of a funnel cover, a funnel, a sampling tube, and a small cover for the sampling tube

Contains a preservation solution, which can be stored at room temperature for a long time after being mixed with saliva

This upgraded version is more convenient to operate than the ordinary classes, and the price is more advantageous

Advantages of saliva collector compared with a blood test:

1. Simpler: no need to endure the pain of blood draw, just spit out saliva gently to get the sample.
2. More convenient: Stable sample, stored at room temperature, can be stored for several years, and convenient transportation;
3. More efficient: convenient for automatic purification, more quantity, and better quality DNA can be obtained;
4. Safer: Collect samples non-invasively to reduce the chance of infection.
